

Ona Desk

Simple modular design, flexible combinations

Jorge Pensi

Jorge Pensi , a spanish famous designer who was born in the Capital City of Argentina in 1946.

In 1977, he partnered up with Alberto Lievone and they had worked together until 1984. Then Pensi established his own design studio in Barcelona and started working on designs of furniture, lamps and buildings.

Jorge Pensi has been awarded with many honors, including the Spanish National Design Prize which he won in 1997.

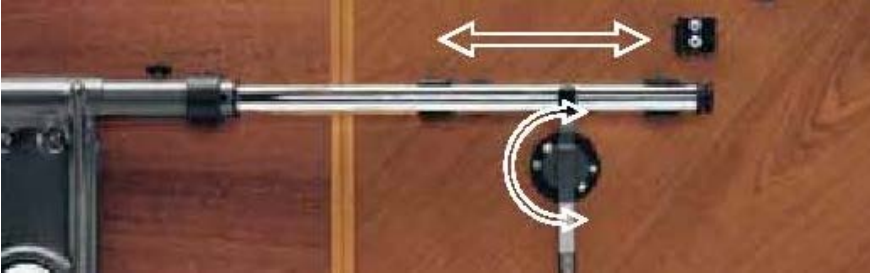

Jorge Pensi also works with Kusch+Co, a high-end German office furniture manufacturer. Together they have created a series of well received classic products, such as Hola, Ona desk, Ona work , Ona Executive and Ronda.

8400 ONA DESK

Design: Jorge Pensi

With all-covered specifications, Kusch_co Ona Desk is capable of fitting into a wide range of spaces, such as meeting rooms, training rooms, dining and reception areas. It is extraordinarily compatible with customers' needs and highly flexible to realize them.

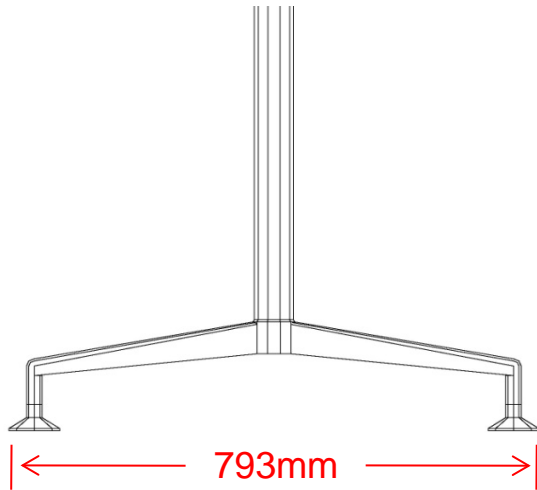

- Fine materials selected (aluminum alloy polished table legs)
- (all aluminum alloy polishing feet)
- Modular structure to ensure free, stable combinations, multi-angle connection and convenient recombination
- Flexible, powerful routing
- Legs of different depth are matched with corresponding desk frame to fit different shapes and sizes of table. With a reasonable connection structure, its stability can be better than other similar metal structures
